

MARSHVILLE NORTH CAROLINA

The Marshville facility is one of three U.S. Cold Storage locations in North Carolina and expands our regional network to our customer base. The growing agricultural, meat and poultry industry in the area is a major focus at this modern warehouse. We are capable of handling any frozen or refrigerated products and customize programs for a wide variety of services. Our partnership with customers in the region make this facility another important link in the U.S. Cold Storage cold chain.
